

Technology Summit

E-Merge tech welcomes the Finnish Delegation

Chennai, India.
November 18, 2009

The Confederation of Indian Industries, jointly with the Department of science and technology, Government of India is organizing 15th Technology Summit and Technology Platform in November 26th and 27th November.

The CEO of E-Merge tech, Mr. Raju Elangovan said that E-Merge tech is happy to know that the Finnish delegation consisting of representative of Finnish Industries and Research Institutes will be attending this exclusive Finnish focused Summit. E-Merge tech welcomes the Finnish delegation for the Summit.

The summit focuses on Clean Technologies, Medical diagnostic, clinical trial services, information and communication technologies and Nano technologies.

Mr. Raju Elangovan says that he is happy to share that one of their geographical focus area is Finland. E-Merge tech has established relationship with many Finland Companies.

Life sciences and Engineering Services are the two broader areas of expertise of E-Merge tech. We are a Knowledge intensive research and analytics company and we are in multiple service areas like Patent Research, Market

Research, Competitive Intelligence and Clinical trial data Management services, explains Mr. Raju Elangovan.

The Life sciences division of E-Merge tech provides a range of services like STM data base creations, literature search, patent search and analytics, publication and citation analysis. E-Merge tech has fortune 500 clients in the areas of Pharma, bio tech and medical devices. The KOL identification service is the latest offering from E-Merge tech.

Mr. Arun Jayabalan Vivek adds that E-Merge tech is a technology research company. The services they offer are of strategic important to their customers. They can track the technologies, players and the market for various purposes like new investments, in- licensing / out licensing opportunities, intelligence, due diligence and for white space identification. He says that E-Merge tech's services come with the Triple Benefits-Speed, Quality and Cost.

Website: www.e-mergeglobal.com